No-one should be surprised to hear that next Saturday's Dunecare has been cancelled due to COVID-19 directives in a bid to keep our volunteers and community safe.

A decision to cease formal monthly working bees until further notice was taken by the management committee at the weekend following discussions with our peak body, Queensland Water and Landcarers.

We'll be monitoring the situation closely over coming weeks and welcome your thoughts on the best ways to keep connected, as many members are not easily contacted through social media.

Like everyone, Coastcare will try to keep operating as normally as possible amid changing advice and within restrictions on gatherings. We'll be thinking about ways to do things differently and modifying behaviour to fit changing circumstance.

Please don't hesitate to contact any member of the Management Committee with any suggestion or concern.

Best wishes & stay safe.

Happy 90th Birthday Olive

Belated birthday greetings to one of Coochie’s environmental stalwarts, Olive Walters, who recently celebrated her milestone birthday with family and friends. Coastcare members extend their heartiest congratulations to you, Olive and look forward to catching up on the dunes when “permitted.” You’re an inspiration to us all with your plant knowledge and unflagging enthusiasm.
